Our Dedication . . .

Mrs. Kettler

We the class of 1957 dedicate this edition of the Blue and Gold to Mrs. Alice Kettler. We would like to thank her in this small way for her faithful service to Jackson-Liberty School for many years.

Our Foreword . . .

In this volume of the Blue and Gold we have endeavored to capture a few glimpses of school life as we see it today. As you review the happenings of 1956-1957 in future years, may this book bring memories of the good times you had in work and play. If you need a definite reminder turn the pages of this book to view the school itself, the faculty to whom you owe so much, and your fellow classmen with whom you have spent many days of your life.

Our Superintendent . . .

Seniors:

As representatives of our school and Community, we would like for you:

1. To believe in God and dignity of the human soul;
2. To have respect for yourself and for others;
3. To strive for the best performance in any work which you may do;
4. To be willing to do more than to meet requirements;
5. To appreciate working with your hands as well as with your head and heart;
6. To give service to any community in which you may be a part;
7. And finally, to hold dear the ideas and ideals which we hope are yours as students of Jackson-Liberty School.

—Mr. Sollars

S. KENNETH SOLLARS

B.A., M.A. in Education Administration, Ohio Wesleyan, Ohio State, Chemistry, Physics, History, French.

Our Principal . . .

ELMER E. SHAW

B.S. in Education, Ohio State University, Bowling Green State University, Heidelberg College, Social Science, History, Mathematics.

Seniors:

For twelve years you have been working toward your goal—namely graduation. You should now be prepared to take your place in the adult world. Your years in school have been a preparation for the tasks you are about to assume. In some of these tasks you will succeed but in others you will fail. In success your teachers will rejoice with you, in your failures we will sympathize with you. However, we will never lose faith in you and will always stand ready to help you.

Many tasks beyond the call of duty will come to you crying to be solved. Assume your fair share and contribute your best effort toward the solution thereof.

Your principal wishes you success in your chosen field of endeavor.

Good luck! May God bless you.

Our Board of Education

No place in all the world is education so free and so generously offered to so many as in the United States of America. This did not just happen, but was the result of a long fight to gain free education. First came the free elementary school, then the free grammar school, followed by the high school, and this followed by the free state universities. There had to be many champions of the cause of education.

That work is now being carried on in large measure by our Boards of Education. If you wish to find a community in which education is on the march, you search for a community where good men will serve on the Board of Education; men who have the good of all the community at heart. In rendering decisions, the good board member considers all angles—the pupil, the parent, the teacher, the janitor, the bus driver, the administration, the taxpayer, and when the evidence is all considered, he makes his decision in the light of what is best for all. We at Jackson-Liberty are fortunate in that we have good men who are willing to be the guardians of our school.

Mr. Jones has served us well for many years. Mr. Harrison is in his second term. Mr. Kisabeth, Mr. Snyder, and Mr. Holman are serving their first term. Mr. Harrison, Mr. Snyder, and Mr. Kisabeth are graduates of Jackson-Liberty.

Board members, we appreciate your good work and wish you much happiness in carrying on your important task.

This is our School

HOME EC. ROOM

This is the new Home Economics department. It is hoped that this newly equipped room will help attract more pupils to this department.

SHOP

This is another of our new rooms. After the accommodations of the past several years, we are very happy to have these splendid rooms to house our vocational agriculture department. We hope to have more people take advantage of these facilities.

This is our School

CAFETERIA

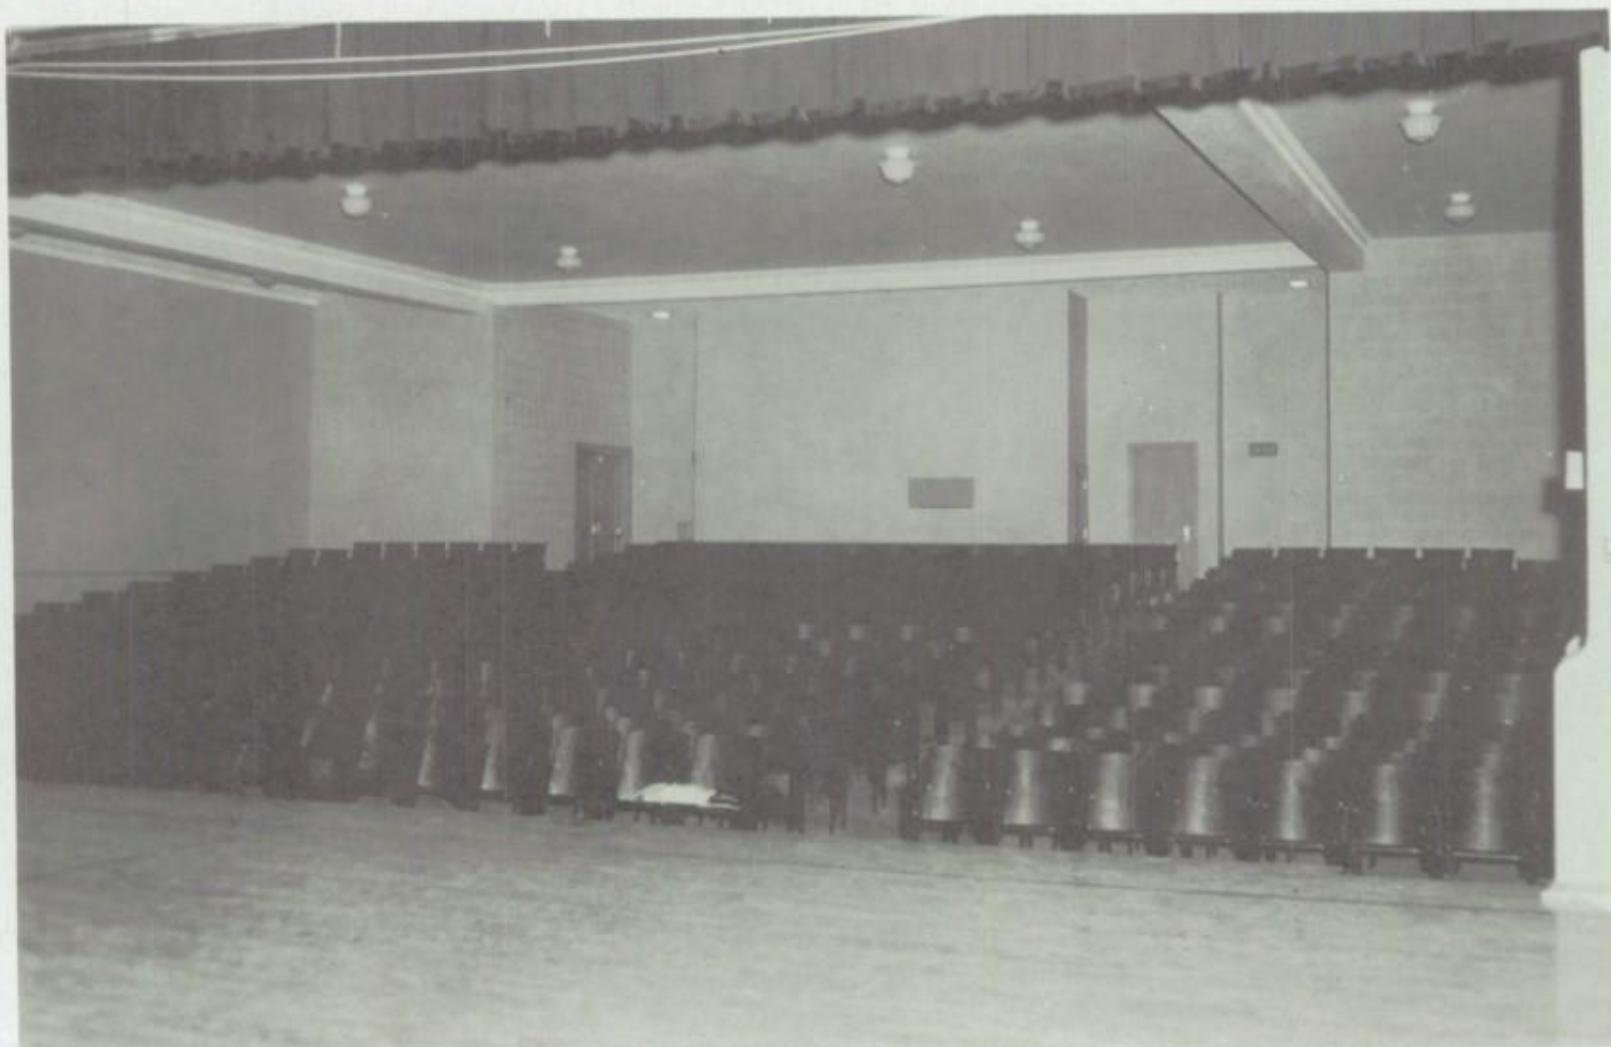

You will recognize our former gymnasium converted into this splendid cafeteria. Approximately 300 pupils may eat here. Both elementary and high school pupils eat in this room at noon. Attached is a fine, well equipped kitchen and store room.

COMMERCIAL ROOM

This is one of our larger departments. It is located in the old section of the building. We have and use 26 typewriters in our classes. This room also houses one of our mimeograph machines.

This is our School

AUDITORIUM

In this room you will recognize our former auditorium reversed. The stage is our new gymnasium. This auditorium will seat 462 without additional chairs. We hope to see you at commencement time.

MUSIC ROOM

This is our new music room. All the pupils come here for their music classes. This is another of our larger departments. We are very happy for this room with its store room for instruments and supplies.

Our Parent Teachers' Association

Irene Hartline, Secretary; William Holman, Vice President; Earl Myers, President; Mary Striff, Treasurer.

A membership campaign was conducted through the school. The children proved they were very able at getting members.

The P. T. A. sponsored a fish supper and basketball games to raise money. The ladies game brought many a laugh and sore muscles. The game was won by the Liberty women. The Liberty men also took the honor from the Jackson men for a very entertaining game.

At Christmas time the children of the first and second grades presented the Christmas story under the direction of Mrs. Aldrich. Later Santa Claus arrived to delight all the children with a candy treat.

The association purchased library books, stage curtains, and dishes for the school. They also gave money toward the summer recreation program.

Another entertaining minstrel was presented by the P. T. A. this year. The cast of sixty members kept the audience in laughter. It was presented two nights with real success.

Class Prophecy

As I was walking along through the park yesterday, I came across an odd looking object. It was laying in a clump of grass, very well concealed. I couldn't resist sitting down on a park bench that was near by to examine it more closely. It looked just like any ordinary Fortune Teller's crystal ball, but as I came to find out later, it really wasn't ordinary at all!

As I sat there all alone, I noticed a fog forming on the inside, and as the mist disappeared I saw these words inside: "This is the Future of the Jackson-Liberty Class of 1957." Now my being a member of this class and really being curious, I decided to see what the results would be.

The first face appearing was that of Herbert Beckhusen. It says here that his address is Cold Water, Michigan. Now that seems like a funny place for Herbie to wind up! Well no wonder, he owns a large Yacht Club there and on the side he owns a chain of large poultry farms. These are in the rural area back in his old home town, Augus, Ohio, which is a big Metropolitan City.

There's another face appearing in the crystal ball now. Why it's Jerald Riedling, and it shows him and his lovely wife and two children. They are enjoying a big party for all big socialites in their swank fifteen room suite in the Plaza Hotel in Washington, D.C. I see Jerald is a very successful lawyer there.

Another face is appearing and it is that of Betty Shultz. She is happily playing the role of Mrs. James Peters, wife of the Personnel Manager of the Fostoria Carbon Co. I see Betty and Jim raised quite a family!

Well of all people, next is Becky Decker. I'll give you three guesses what she's doing! No, none of your guesses are right. She's head cartoonist for Walt Disney out in Hollywood, California. Oh, shucks! It's fading out again just as I was getting interested in Becky's future.

Oh, well, another face is appearing, why it's Bernard Blake. Say he's going to do very well, because the crystal shows him as the Chief of Police in St. Louis, Missouri.

And it shows Larry Hedden as the new owner of the Lincoln and Mercury plant in Detroit, Michigan. He is happily married with three children. Whoops! Something went wrong, I can't seem to get very good reception any more. In fact, it's not working at all! Gee Whizz, and I was just getting enthused! Well, I'll probably never see how the rest of our class turns out, especially me, but then maybe if I shook it or something - - - there, now let's see if it works! No, I guess not. But wait, it's getting a hazy look inside again.

Ah! I see someone's face appearing. Well, Hi there, Marlene. Oooops, I forgot she can't hear me. It's Marlene Knepper and she is the wife of Admiral Robert Wertz and he named his ship after her—"The Marlene".

Here comes another one of our class mates and this time it's - - -. Oh no I think it's fading out again. No here it comes back,—and it's Lenora Grimes. She's also happily married to Frank Aldrich and he now owns the Marathon Gas Co. in Dayton, Ohio.

Oh here comes a face that looks familiar. It's Bill Meyer. He sure is doing well for himself. It shows him here as the owner of the World famous "Meyer Show Horses". It says he is now worth a Quarter of a Million - - - or did that say just a quarter? Maybe I better pay closer attention next time, huh?

Next is James Steinmetz and he is really showing his authority as 2nd Lieutenant in the Army, which is real swell. He is going to make a career in the Army!

Well where is this thing taking me now? It looks like Fifth Ave. in New York. It is! Why I'm going to a big fashion show at the exclusive Dress Shop—Sach's. And who should the first Model be but Jennie Woessner. My she sure is pretty in that evening gown, which is a Paris Creation.

I had better hurry up and tune someone else in before this conks out on me again. Oh, Beverly Hills, California is coming in. Gee, this makes the second time I've visited California today! Boy the reception I'm gettng is very clear. It must be this California sunshine you hear so much about. I can see a private elementary school for professional children. Who are those familiar figures walking down the steps? Why it can't be, but it is. They are the co-owners of the school, Darlene Kline and Ann Wilcox. Boy they sure look happy in their field. Gee, the future looks so bright for everyone in our class that I can hardly wait to see mine. Mine will more than likely be next. At least I hope so.

Here it comes now - - - but wait - - - No it's a boy's face and he's playing basketball. I can't make out what team it is. Just a minute. I'll see if I can read his Jersey - - - Why it's the World famous "Holman World Runners". Wayne Holman is the owner, coach and star player on the team. You'll never guess who the other team is. It's the World famous "Harlem Globe Trotters". Sure do wish I had the time to watch the rest of the game, but I gotta shag along! Hope "The Runners" beat "The Trotters"!

Well let's see who's next. It's Kenny Vance no less. Boy has he ever got it easy! He is head photographer for Photoplay Magazine. I bet he enjoys photographing all those beautiful movie stars! Oh darn, Rock Hudson was just walking into Kenny's studio when I lost contact, but maybe my future will be next. Hope so!

No, it's Maryetta Loomis instead, and I surely envy her. She's got her own private office. She is the private secretary of the Governor of Ohio.

Now let's see who the next one is! Say now, this sure is a change of scenery. I can see a State Highway Patrolman and he is really giving some guy a merry chase. Boy this is really exciting. I hope my crystal ball gets close enough so I can see who it is. Now it's moving in, and it's Jim Pasch. Boy knowing Jim as I do, I bet he really gives that guy a piece of his mind. There he has the car stopped. Well what do you know? It's not a man at all but a pretty girl and Jim is letting her go! Well like I said, Jim hasn't changed at all, so I'll see who I can dig up next on this thing. I sure hope I'm next!

Now I can see a factory and it's a mammoth Thing! Whatever they manufacture they must be big. I'll see what it says on the sign on the front of the building. It says "Tiny's Long Long Trailers". Why Leonard Hatfield owns a house trailer factory in the big city of Amsden. Glad to see good ole Tiny doing so well.

I'm also glad to see Bonnie Shultz so happy. Of course Bill Peeler changed her name for her a little while after she graduated. They have quite a nice size family and Bill is very busy managing all his farms. The one they live on is over 2,000 acres itself!

I see here that Margaret Frisch is the Dean of Women at the world's most famous business school, Tiffin University. She started out just being a Professor in Commercial courses at T.U., and now look where she is!

Now, I'm off to Chicago, Illinois. Well I don't know what kind of building this is I'm in, but you should see how the people are running around here. I never saw so much confusion in all my life. Somebody is opening a door to a big office and a blond haired man is sitting behind the desk. I hope the crystal ball gets closer so I can see who it is. It's the face of Paul Layton and he is the editor of the "Chicago Daily Times". Now I can see the reason for everyone being so busy. He is also an owner and instructor in his spare time in a dancing studio. He has a special step of his own that he teaches all his pupils.

Boy, if my future doesn't come before long I'll die of curiosity! Well, I think mine's finally coming in view. You might know mine would be last! Oh I'm so excited, I only hope my life will be as exciting as the rest of my classmates! The fog is disappearing now, and apparently I'm married, because it shows me in a house waiting at a door! Now I wonder whom I'm waiting for? I look like I'm happy even though I am pacing the floor. Well someone is coming down the walk. I'm looking out the window and it's a man. He must be my husband. Well I'm opening the door and - - - well of all people I'm married to - - - oooops!!!! The crystal ball slipped out of my hands and shattered into a million pieces on the sidewalk. Since I didn't get a real good look at the man's face I won't reveal his name because it could be mistaken identity!

I'm rather disappointed because I didn't see my whole future, but I did see my fellow classmates. I'm glad to know they are all successful in their different professions, but most of all I'm glad to be a member of this class! Now all we have to do is see if they do as the crystal ball says they will! OK?

—Carolyn Perkins

“Class Will”

We, the members of the Senior Class of 1957, Jackson-Liberty High School, Seneca County, the State of Ohio, and in the United States of America, knowing our school days are drawing to a close, realize that the time has come to make out the last will and testament of the Senior Class. We being of sound mind, do hereby bequeath to our fellow students as follows:

First: To the Jackson-Liberty School we leave our stray belongings, such as our well used books which we cherished very much, nice smooth and well kept desks, a few wrote up tablets, and well exhausted teachers.

Second: To the Faculty we do will and bequeath that the future classes of J.L.H.S. be as successful, co-operating, and easy to get along with as we were.

To the Junior Class: We do will and bequeath our ability to have a bulging class treasury and spend it so sparingly.

To the Sophomore Class: We do will and bequeath our many interesting class discussions and arguments.

To the Freshman Class: We do will and bequeath our most intelligent brains.

Third: To Mr. Dollars, we do will and bequeath our friendship.

To Mr. Shaw, we do will and bequeath another very quiet and non-arguing Democracy class.

To Mr. Kettler, we do will and bequeath the honor of many more classes as hard working and attentive as ours.

To Mrs. Shreve, we do will and bequeath another Senior Home Economics class as interesting and talkative as the one in "57".

To Mr. Bowersox, we do will and bequeath five more good players and a championship team.

To Mr. Bricker, we do will and bequeath another large class for Drivers Training that can keep the car in one piece.

To Mr. Shreve, we do will and bequeath another shop class to make more paddles.

To Miss Fischer, we do will and bequeath the ability to direct another Senior Class Play like the class of "57".

To Mrs. Murphy, we do will and bequeath a second year typing class to break the world's typing record.

To Miss Huff, we do will and bequeath more Seniors in the band next year.

To Mrs. Kettler, we do will and bequeath another class to pay their bills so rapidly.

To the cooks, we do will and bequeath 22 less mouths to fill.

To Mr. Massie, we do will and bequeath 22 less milk bottles to clean up.

I, Herbert Beckhusen, do will and bequeath my soft and delicate laugh to Tom Kissling.

I, Betty Shultz, do will and bequeath my ability to have Cheerleading all four years to any one who can fulfill it.

I, Jerald Reidling, do will and bequeath my job as President of the Senior Class to any one who has the ability of getting something settled in Home Room Time.—15 minutes.

I, Bonnie Shultz, do will and bequeath my ability to have gone steady all four years of high school (with no one but Bill) to Mary Williams.

I, Maryetta Loomis, do will and bequeath my shorthand ability to Barbara Nye.

I, Carolyn Perkins, do will and bequeath my ability of talkativeness to Ruth Nicholson.

I, Leonard Hatfield, do will and bequeath my quiet and shy ways to Bob McGough.

I, Margaret Frisch, do will and bequeath my ability to get along without boys to Sandra Jones.

I, Bill Meyer, do will and bequeath my ability to get a new Chevy Convertible to any one who can afford it.

I, Paul Layton, do will and bequeath my "way with the women" to Earl Myers.

I, Ann Wilcox, do will and bequeath my job as Editor of the Blue and Gold Staff to any one who wants to tackle it and the headaches with it.

I, Jim Pasch, do will and bequeath my ability to speak my mind and argue to Frances Kettler.

I, Becky Decker, do will and bequeath my ability to do the Chicken to Janet Luzader.

The Student Council is the students opportunity to participate in school administration. However, any act of this body is subject to the veto of the superintendent of the school. It is a representative group of pupils elected by the classes and by several of the clubs of the school. This Council represents grades seven to twelve.

The first attempt at this activity was made under the guidance of Mr. Snyder. After about two years it was given up and was not revived until the time of Mr. Now.

Some of the official acts of this group have been the establishment of our system of making awards in athletics, music and public speaking. For several years, the council was responsible for yearly planning of an assembly and chapel program. More recently they have examined the budgets of the classes and organizations and either rejected or accepted them. In this way each class has been protected in the money making projects allotted to its group.

The most important money making project of this organization is the magazine campaign. This is more successful each year and we hope to make it a habit.

Some of our projects are to finance the Athletic Banquet, pay the fees for the Senior Scholarship Tests. We also sponsor, financially, the Honor Society. Yearly we purchase and decorate the Christmas Tree, conduct the election of cheerleaders, and plan the Freshman initiation. This year we plan to spend some money for stage properties.

The council is constantly on the look-out for projects that will make Jackson-Liberty a better school. Do you have any to suggest?

Seventeen

Poor Willie Baxter, Paul Layton, is moonstruck from the minute he meets cute, dark-eyed, baby-talking Lola Pratt, Kay Yoakum, who has come to the country for a summer visit. Willie's father, Herb Beckhusen, thinks Willie must be sick, but his little sister, Sandra Jones, gets some spiteful joy out of mimicking him. On top of that, every other boy in the neighborhood is vying with Willie for Lola's attention. He goes to such lengths to impress her that he wears his father's much-too-large formal dress suit whenever he calls on her in the evening. Poor Willie sticks out like a sore thumb. But if you still have an empty place in your heart for the scenes of your childhood, you should have been completely captivated by this youthful, musical memory.

This was the largest production that the Jackson-Liberty Music Department has ever attempted. There were eleven different scenes with an orchestra used for an accompaniment. Weeks were spent working on the stage scenery, dances, choruses, orchestra and individual solos. The costuming was very modern and outstanding in color and style.

Miss Huff

We wish to thank Miss Huff for another year of outstanding achievements in the music department. She has again put her fullest efforts into all contests and activities.

This year she directed a minstrel for the P.T.A.; the band played at the home ballgames; the music contestants came home with very high ratings in the clinic, district, and state contests; and the grade school operetta proved to be a great success with an exceptionally full house. The high school operetta was produced two nights with an outstanding attendance.

The juniors and seniors would also like to thank Miss Huff for applying make-up for the junior and senior class plays.

The Jackson-Liberty Band consisting of fifty members is an organization of which the community is very proud. During the summer months we played at the Attica and Tiffin Fairs, Ice Cream Socials and the Fireman's Convention in Ottawa.

We were honored to be chosen as the band in the county to entertain the North Central Electric Co-op Convention in Tiffin on January 26th. We played at almost all our home basketball games and really enjoyed doing formations for the first time on our new floor. The Band Boosters sold programs and tickets on cakes at each home game.

Several of our members had the honor of playing in the all county band which was held in November at Hopewell-Louden School.

Each year our band shows much improvement but we are still striving to make it better and the best.

Our Sextet

Ann Wilcox, Gail Ecker, Ruth Edinger, Sandra Jones, Kay Yoakum, Darlene Kline, Miss Huff.

Who could have more fun than these six snappy gals and Miss Huff? Like the night they entertained the Kiwanis Club in Fostoria and two of the girls passed all of their shrimp cocktail under the table and put it in Miss Huff's lap. That same night one of them was taking Miss Huff home and ran over a four legged black animal with a white streak down its back. Risingsun sure got perfumed that night! They also enjoyed the delicious steak dinners while entertaining the Fostoria Industrial Management Club and the Rotary Club. They entered the music contests in the spring and to date received a I rating in the clinic.

Our Clarinet Quartet

The music department at Jackson-Liberty would not be complete without the traditional clarinet quartet. They entered the music contests in the spring and to date received I rating in the clinic. These girls were highly praised by the judge on fine intonation and their ability to listen to each other. For some reason these girls always have a lot of fun with all of their problems. The week of the contest one mouth piece fell to the floor and broke into bits, one clarinet lost several pads, another cracked a barrel and Miss Huff almost lost her mind. (Who wouldn't?) The quartet will be a trio next year, for one of our fun-makers, Darlene Kline will be leaving for B. G. studying to be an elementary teacher. Best of luck, Clinker!

One Act Play

THE LORD'S PRAYER by Francois Coppee

Mademoiselle Rose Joan Sabo
Zelee Barbara McElhaney
Mere Blanche Gail Ecker
The Cure Jim Steinmetz
Jacques LeRoux Bob McGough
An Officer Paul Hughes
Soldiers.. Virgil Hughes, Bernard Scherer

The play takes place in a small cottage occupied by the sister of the Abbe Morel which has just been shot by the rebels during the French Revolution.

The play starts with the housekeeper and neighbor discussing the Abb'e death and the broken hearted sister. During the play, a rebel comes to the sister to be hidden because he was not in favor of the revolution and when the soldiers come to get him she decides to give him the Abbe's cassock to wear so he will be saved. She then says the Lord's Prayer and the curtain falls on a changed woman who no longer holds hatred in her heart.

Miss Fischer

Miss Fischer has done a fine job in directing the senior class play and the one act play. Both productions were smash hits. Everyone enjoyed working with Miss Fischer and we would like to thank her for everything she has done.

Mr. Bricker directed the junior class play which was a big success. He proved to be a very capable director. The juniors all enjoyed producing their play and wish to thank Mr. Bricker for the big help he was to them.

THE MAGIC TOUCH

Robert and June Braddock, Wayne Holman and Darlene Kline, have quite a problem when their teenage tomboy Bobbette, Marlene Knepper, disappears. She thinks Freida Fisher, Becky Decker, is trying to break up the Dirty Dozen and take Socko, Jim Pasch, away from her. Miss Blodget the Home Ec. teacher, Ann Wilcox, comes to the rescue. Chuck and Hank, Bill Meyer and Jerald Reidling, complete the Dirty Dozen.

June hires Mrs. Washington and Ophelia Moore, Bonnie and Betty Shultz, as her helpers for the fashion show. The Better Culture Club Committee, Mrs. Stockdale, Carolyn Perkins; Mrs. Poo, Maryetta Loomis; Mrs. Clarence, Lenora Grimes; is very astonished over the whole uproar.

Their chauffeur Willie, Jim Steinmetz and Squint, Herbert Beckhusen, the electrician add to the laughs of the evening.

The play ends with the whole family being changed by the influence of the "Magic Touch."

Junior Class Play

WILLIE'S WEEKEND

Mrs. McDonald, played convincingly by Gail Ecker, owns the Bide Awee home, where the flirtatious Mrs. Winkle, Judy Rouser, brings her son to convalesce. The part of Willie is rollickingly enacted by Bob McGough. She leaves him under the supervision of affable Hodgy Podgy, Tom Kissling, and Mulligan, Sandra Sayre. Sandra had the audience forever laughing. Pretty Eva Wood, Sandra Jones, nurses Brenda and Shirely, played by Barb McElhaney and Betty Stahl respectively, take charge of Willie. The place becomes a mad house of hilarity with Paul and Virgil Hughes really putting on "THE ACT" by being Napoleon and Captain Kidd.

Mrs. Wood, Ruth Shafferly, arrives to find the "Babies" Eva and Willie, kidnapped. Kathleen Steinmetz, as the quiet Janey Lou, answers the door bell and ushers in the newly-weds, Mr. and Mrs. William Winkle.

Larry Hedden—Forward
This was Larry's third year as a varsity letter man. His fighting spirit and sharpshooting from anywhere on the floor was a great asset to the team in those tight spots. He will leave a position which will be hard to fill in the coming years.

Bill Meyer—Guard
Bill broke into the starting lineup his senior year. One of the shortest boys on the team, he kept the opponents working with fine ball handling and his long one-handed set-shots that managed to loosen up a tight defense. Bill will be a noted loss next year.

Wayne Holman—Center
Wayne, playing two of his four years on the varsity, turned in many fine performances, with one of his biggest coming in the Thompson game. Wayne's height brought him many scoring and rebounding honors. His calm playing will leave a position that will be missed by both the team and fans.

Jerald Reidling—Guard
Jerald, another senior boy, did a lot of fine substituting his last year. His guarding ability along with his ever hard driving brought him the respect of both the team and the spectators. His seriousness and desire to win will long be remembered.

Herbert Beckhusen
Forward

Herb found a place on the varsity his last year. Being one of the taller boys on the team, he will have a position not easily filled. Herb was an inspiration not only to the team but the fans as well. He will long be remembered for his cooperative attitude.

J

Ronald Hedden—Forward
This was Ronnie's first year as a varsity player. He was a constant threat and kept the opposition guessing with his faking and deadly jump-shots. His cooperation and calmness on the hard court was a noted asset and much will be expected of him again next year.

Winners In J-L Table Tennis

Jerald Reidling of Amsden, O. and Linda Vogel of R. R. 3, Fostoria O. won prized Harvard Gold Medals in the boy's and girl's singles championships respectively in the exciting Harvard Table Tennis Tournament. Both winners showed fine table tennis technique as they drove through four hard-fought preliminary matches before defeating their respective runners-up in fast-moving final matches. Jerald, winner of the boy's crown, defeated Earl J. Myers for the championship, while Linda, girl's winner, defeated Ruth Edinger before a number of spectators.

Mr. Ken Bowersox, local tournament director, will present the Harvard Table Tennis Tournament Gold Medals and inscribed Tournament Award Certificates to both winners at a special award presentation ceremony. The names of both winners in the local contest have been permanently recorded in Harvard's Book of Champions. This book contains the names of all winners in Harvard Tournaments held throughout the nation.

Trophy Winners

This year our cheerleaders have again won the first place county cheerleading trophy. This is the third year in succession our cheerleaders have won first place.

Betty Shultz, our senior, has been a cheerleader for four years. We are very sorry to see Betty leave.

Kay Yoakum, who is a junior this year, has been on the cheering team for two years. This is the first year for Ruth Edinger, a sophomore, and Sue Compton, a freshman. Each class of the student body was well represented by this group.

These girls have worked very hard on their cheers and formations and we are proud of them.

Our Jr. High Team

SEATED: Jim Roth, Gayle Holman, Bruce Roth, Paul Minich.
SECOND ROW: Carl Cessna, Edwin Wilcox, Danny McGough, Tom Watkins, Dallas Drenning, Bill McGough.
THIRD ROW: Ray Might, Larry Stull, Carl Feasel, John Wellman, Ronnie Watkins, Barry Smith, Dwight Reidling, Jim Vogel, Duane Shaferly, Mr. Bricker.

Our Jr. High Cheerleaders

Nancy Compton, Cindy Hedden, Sue Jones, Joan Gee.
